Re: Trewin et al v. Church & Dwight, Inc.
3:12-cv-01475-MAS-DEA

Dear Judge Shipp:

This letter is being submitted via fax at the suggestion of Your Honor's Clerk.

This firm represents Defendant Church & Dwight Co., Inc. ("Defendant") in the above-referenced matter, for which I am serving as local counsel. An oral argument is scheduled for December 5, 2012, on Defendant's motion to dismiss the complaint pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 12(b)(6). Another attorney from this firm who is admitted pro hac vice will be arguing the motion on behalf of Defendant.

I understand that usually local counsel is present for an oral argument before the Court. In this instance, however, Defendant respectfully requests that the Court excuse local counsel from appearing for the oral argument.

James C. Shah, Esq., counsel for Plaintiffs in this action, consents to excusing local counsel for Defendant from appearing for this oral argument.

We thank the Court for its consideration of this request.

Respectfully submitted,

Wanda L. Ellert
